

Center for Student Involvement – Communication & Leadership TCLI Mentor / STDT 3

OVERVIEW

The Triton Community Leadership Institute is a yearlong program launched with an overnight residential retreat offered in summer to new UC San Diego freshmen students who are primarily first-generation and/or underrepresented students. This four-day, three-night residential experience provides students an opportunity to build connections and relationships with one another, learn about campus resources and involvement opportunities, and learn about social justice theory and practice. Following the institute, monthly events, individual meetings, and small group gatherings will be offered throughout the academic year to keep students connected as a cohort and to extend learning.

TCLI Student Staff Positions:

- TCLI Mentors – Twelve continuing undergraduate students will lead a group of 10 participants in residence throughout the duration of the program. TCLI Mentors will work for the duration of the summer program and will continue through the upcoming academic school year.
- TCLI Mentor Coordinators – Two continuing undergraduate students will serve as a resource to the TCLI Mentors. They will assist the Program Coordinator in the planning, coordination, and delivery of the program. TCLI Mentor Coordinators will work for the duration of the program and will continue through the upcoming academic school year.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Lead and reside in a suite of approximately ten program participants to ensure their active learning, enjoyment, and safety;
- Facilitate ice breakers, team builders, and general activities;
- Facilitate group activities and discussions in relation to diversity and social justice issues including but not limited to: race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religious, and class background;
- Assist with the set-up, participant check-in, and delivery of all general aspects of the program;
- Meet and maintain communication with the Program Coordinator and TCLI Mentor Coordinators throughout the academic school year to obtain updates, referrals, and support;
- Attend bi-weekly TCLI Mentor meetings throughout the academic school year, held on Wednesdays of even weeks from 4:00pm to 5:30pm;
- Attend TCLI Fridays throughout the academic school year, held on the first Friday of every month;
- Meet with students to provide individual support and referrals, three times per quarter;
- Facilitate activities or attend on-campus events with program participants, once times per quarter;
- Maintain and enforce program rules and UCSD policy and procedures;
- Prepare and organize program supplies and materials;
- Assist with program and learning outcome assessment;
- Serve as a positive role model and UC San Diego representative including language, appearance, and manner;
- Provides support to the Program Coordinator with special projects, as needed.
